Conference 2010

You are invited to attend the 8th annual Solution Focused Brief Therapy Association Conference, November 17th-21st, 2010 in Banff, Alberta, Canada!

Internationally recognized SFBT clinician Peter De Jong, and microanalysis researcher Janet Bavelas will open the conference by comparing the therapeutic practices of SFBT with other therapies.

Come and learn why SFBT is becoming one of the most successful Brief Therapy models in the world. Meet the masters and learn from each other in North America's most beautiful National Park! You won't be disappointed!
